Andrea Lynch

Some facts about Andrea Lynch – applicant for VP of BLRC

- Kiwi who moved to Canada for a one year adventure in 1989 – the adventure continues....
- Became involved in rowing by supporting daughters at Crofton House School, college (NCAA) and provincial level.
- Learned to row a single at 49 yrs old (!) after joined the BLRC board. Enthusiastically (but poorly) rowed through the dredge project at Burnaby Lake, but not the past 2 seasons
- Joined BLRC as a board member approximately 6-7 years ago, initially to represent the junior rowers at the club (as a parent).
- Responsible for development of the BLRC safety plan and helped with development of regattas as part of the regatta committee
- Have volunteered at all levels of a regatta ranging from parking lot attendant to regatta chair; was on the 2016 NRC organizing committee and have committed to the OC for 2017
- Have watched all levels of rowing from small club regattas through to Olympics; most recently supported my daughter at the Rowing World Championships 2016
- Current fitness craze – spinning and road cycling; completed my second Gran Fondo (to Whistler) in 2016
- Enjoy walking, cycling, snow shoeing and lattes – and visiting numerous family around the world.
